IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Mr. SIRES introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on _____

A BILL

To direct the United States Government to support extending the mandate of the Independent International Fact-Finding Mission on Venezuela which is set to expire in September 2022.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Assuring that the 5 Fact-Finding Examination Continues to Track Human 6 Rights in Venezuela Act” or the “AFFECT Human 7 Rights in Venezuela Act”.

1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

2 Congress makes the following findings:

3 (1) In its Resolution 42/25 adopted on Sep-
4 tember 27, 2019, the United Nations Human Rights
5 Council established an independent fact-finding mis-
6 sion, the Independent International Fact-Finding 7 Mission on the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela (in 8 this section referred to as the “Fact-Finding Mis-
9 sion”) “to investigate extrajudicial executions, en-
10 forced disappearances, arbitrary detentions and tor-
11 ture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treat-
12 ment since 2014 with a view to ensuring full ac-
13 countability for perpetrators and justice for vic-
14 tims”. The mandate of the Fact-Finding Mission
15 was extended by the United Nations Human Rights
16 Council on October 6, 2020, for an additional two 17 years, until September 2022, through its Resolution
18 45/20.

19 (2) The Fact-Finding Mission has identified
20 specific incidents and patterns establishing reason-
21 able grounds to conclude that violations of inter-22 national human rights and criminal law have been 23 committed in Venezuela, according to its September
24 2020 report.

25 (3) The Fact-Finding Mission has faced several 26 constraints, including lack of access to work in-coun-

1       try, travel limitations due to the COVID-19 pan-
2       demic, disrupted interviews due to electricity and 3       internet failures, and limited ability to secure wit-
4       ness statements and key documents. Despite these 5       challenges, the Fact-Finding Mission was able to 6       carry out its investigative and analytical work and 7       generate reports that serve as an invaluable resource 8       for victims, civil society organizations, and inter-
9       national accountability mechanisms.

10       (4) The United States has historically used its 11       voice, vote, and influence at the United Nations to 12       address human rights abuses around the world and 13       to seek to hold perpetrators accountable.

14       (5) Marta Valiñas, Chair of the Fact-Finding 15       Mission, reported at the 49th session of the Human 16       Rights Council that the Venezuelan people “have en-
17       dured a decade of deepening economic, humanitarian 18       and human rights crises, as well as the breaking 19       down of State institutions, all of this exacerbated, 20       most recently, by the impact of COVID-19. The 21       clearest showing of this are the more than six mil-
22       lion people who have had to leave the country.”.
